

RESILIENT SOCIETIES

IN TIMES OF UNCERTAINTY

FROM CONCEPTUAL FOUNDATIONS TO SOCIETAL IMPLEMENTATION

KYOTO UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF ETHICS
17-19 MARCH 2027

RE-CARE • www.resilient-healthcare.de

ORGANISERS

SATOSHI KODAMA
DENNIS KRÄMER
THORSTEN QUANDT
SEISUKE HAYAKAWA
MICHAEL CAMPBELL

DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft

CONFERENCE VENUE

Rakuyu Kaikan

Kyoto University
Yoshida-Nihonmatsu-cho
Sakyo-ku, Kyoto 606-8501
Japan

GETTING THERE FROM KYOTO STATION

From Kyoto Station: City Bus 206 towards Kitaoji Bus Terminal (via Sanjusangendo, Kiyomizu-dera and Gion) from stop D2 at the station bus terminal; alight at Konoe-dori (approx. 30 min). The venue is right by the stop.

Please board at D2: bus 206 from stop A3 takes a different route.

From Kawaramachi (Hankyu) or Gion-Shijo (Keihan): City Bus 201 or 31 (eastbound) to Konoe-dori.

No parking at the venue: please use public transport.

FUNDED BY

University of Münster
Kyoto University
German Research Foundation (DFG)

ORGANISING COMMITTEE

Satoshi Kodama (Kyoto)
Dennis Krämer (Münster)
Thorsten Quandt (Münster)
Seisuke Hayakawa (Kyoto)
Michael Campbell (Kyoto)

12:00–12:30	Welcome and Opening Remarks Satoshi Kodama (Kyoto) and Dennis Krämer (Münster)
12:30–13:00	Break
13:00–14:00	KEYNOTE Recovery or Transformation? Rethinking Resilience in Super-Aged Societies Satoshi Kodama (Kyoto) Introduction: Dennis Krämer
14:00–14:30	Break
14:30–16:30	PANEL 1 Health System Resilience: Data Governance and Social Preparedness Panel Host: Dennis Krämer ■ How Should Genome Data Be Used in Our Society? Shigeto Yonemura (Tokyo) ■ Resilient Infrastructures for Pandemic Preparedness in Germany: Lessons Learned from an Epidemiological Perspective André Karch (Münster) ■ Cross-Border Patient Flows as a Mechanism for Healthcare Resilience: Insights from the CareFlow Project Bernd Hellingrath and Adam Widera (Münster) ■ Workstyle Reform and Healthcare Productivity Changes in Japan Yoshinori Nakata (Tokyo)
17:00–18:30	Welcome Reception

09:30–10:30	KEYNOTE Democratic Societies in Times of Uncertainty and Crisis: How to Build Resilience Against Internal and External Information Threats Thorsten Quandt (Münster) Introduction: Satoshi Kodama
10:30–11:00	Break
11:00–13:00	PANEL 2 Governing Crises and Resilience: Institutions, Autonomy, and Social Imaginaries Panel Host: Joschka Haltaufderheide ■ Criminal Punishment as Crisis Governance: Learning from Penal Enforcement During COVID-19 Sou Hee Yang (Takasaki) ■ Street-Level Bureaucracy and Discretion in Social Policies During Crises: Examples from Long-Term Care Policies Davide Viero (Duisburg-Essen) ■ The Autonomy Paradox and the Reconfiguration of the Public Interest: Voluntary Assisted Dying (VAD) in the Age of Hyper-Liberalism Yukio Sakurai (Yokohama) ■ 'The World Ends Tomorrow!' – Yet Again...: Patterns in the Discursive Fabrication of Apocalyptic Narratives Dennis Krämer (Münster)
13:00–14:30	Lunch
14:30–16:30	PANEL 3 Truth, Trust, and Health: Fostering Societal Resilience in the Digital Age Panel Host: Thorsten Quandt ■ From National Security to Civil Society: Reframing Information Resilience and Disaster Mis- and Disinformation in Japan Kyoko Kuwahara (Tokyo) ■ Head in the Sand: Digital Discourse and the Ostrich Avian Flu Controversy in Canada Jean-Christophe Boucher and Guillaume L'Hermie (Calgary) ■ Losing the Narrative? How Influencers Shape Vaccine Discourse and How Public Health Institutions Can Respond Chris Tenove (Vancouver) ■ Researching Information Resilience: Trends in Interdisciplinary Research on Disinformation Saïd Unger, Johanna Klapproth, Thorsten Quandt and Dennis Krämer (Münster)
18:00	Dinner

10:00–11:30

PANEL 4

Theoretical and Normative Foundations of Resilience*Panel Host:* Seisuke Hayakawa

- Resilience Between Cybernetic Fantasies of Control and Deliberative Crisis Governance
Gabriel Bartl (Berlin)
- Humanity, Solidarity, Impartiality: Ethical Principles for Designing Predictive Crisis Technologies
Joschka Haltaufderheide (Greifswald)
- Equity-Sensitive Resilience Research: A Phenomenological and Mechanism-Based Framework Grounded in Lived Experiences and Social Practices
Azher Hameed Qamar (Münster)

11:30–13:00

Lunch

13:00–15:00

PANEL 5

Technological Resilience: AI, Cybersecurity, and Digital Infrastructures*Panel Host:* Michael Campbell

- Artificial Intelligence and Welfare Services in Japanese Municipalities
Susanne Brucksch (Tokyo)
- Disconnected Resilience: Absence-Relations and Digital Detox in Times of Technological Uncertainty
Annie Kurz (Stuttgart)
- Responding to Cyberattacks on Healthcare Information Systems and Government Involvement
Ken Ogata (Tokyo)
- From Pilot Projects to Resilient Healthcare Infrastructure: Legal and Ethical Conditions for the Social Implementation of Medical AI in Japan
Takanori Fujita (Tokyo)

15:00–15:30

Concluding Discussion

15:30

End of the Kyoto Conference